

Constitution – Hoylake4All

adopted on 10 September 2025

PART 1

1. Adoption of the constitution

The Association and its property will be administered and managed in accordance with the provisions in Parts 1 and 2 of this constitution.

2. Name

The association's name is Hoylake4All (the Association).

3. Objects

The Association's objects ('the objects') are to enhance social inclusion and community resilience in Hoylake, and to support residents in need in Hoylake or nearby, by whatever means as the trustees see fit.

4. Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) An association trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the association or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the association.
 - (b) An association trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the association's expense.
- (2) None of the income or property of the association may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the association. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee from receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from the association in the capacity of a beneficiary of the association;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the association.

5. Benefits and payments to association trustees and connected persons

(1) General provisions

No association trustee or connected person may:

- a) buy or receive any goods or services from the association on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

- b) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the association;
- c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the association;
- d) receive any other financial benefit from the association;

unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court. In this clause, a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- (a) An association trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the association in the capacity of a beneficiary of the association provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- (b) An association trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the association where;
 - the remuneration is reasonable and on an arms length basis, and
 - entering into the contract is in best interests of the association.

The association trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a contract is under discussion.

- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause an association trustee or connected person may provide the association with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the association by the association trustee or connected person.
- (d) An association trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the association at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) An association trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the association. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The association trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) An association trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the association on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only - controls

The association and its association trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 2(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the association and the association trustee or connected person supplying the goods ('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the association.
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other association trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the association to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not an association trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the association trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with an association trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the association.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of association trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the association trustees in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the association trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 5.

(4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

- (a) 'the association' includes any company in which the association:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more trustees to the board of the company.
- (b) 'connected person' includes any person within the definition set out in clause 34 (Interpretation).

6. Dissolution

(1) If the members resolve to dissolve the association the trustees will remain in office as association trustees and be responsible for winding up the affairs of the association in accordance with this clause.

- (2) The trustees must collect in all the assets of the association and must pay or make provision for all the liabilities of the association.
- (3) The trustees must apply any remaining property or money:
 - (a) directly for the objects;
 - (b) by transfer to any association or charities for purposes the same as or similar to the association
- (4) The members may pass a resolution before or at the same time as the resolution to dissolve the association specifying the manner in which the trustees are to apply the remaining property or assets of the association and the trustees must comply with the resolution if it is consistent with paragraphs (a) - (b) inclusive in sub-clause (3) above.
- (5) In no circumstances shall the net assets of the association be paid to or distributed among the members of the association (except to a member that is itself an association).

7. Amendment of constitution

- (1) The association may amend any provision contained in Part 1 of this constitution provided that:
 - (a) no amendment may be made that would have the effect of making the association cease to be an association at law;
 - (b) no amendment may be made to alter the objects if the change would undermine or work against the previous objects of the association;
 - (c) any resolution to amend a provision of Part 1 of this constitution is passed by not less than two thirds of the members present and voting at a general meeting.
- (2) Any provision contained in Part 2 of this constitution may be amended, provided that any such amendment is made by resolution passed by a simple majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting.
